WEAKENS MARKET

Efforts to Sustain Prices Centre on Southern Pacific, and Amalgamated Copper.

NEW YORK, May 4 .- Periods of weakness during the morning in the stock market, while the London mar-ket was in operation, was attributed to sympathy with that market. The bad news of tribal disturbances amongst the Afghans on the Indian frontier. The usual weekly remarks by railroad traffic officials, while pointing out the hopeful promise for business contained in the good crop prospects, gave free expression to the sense of disappointment over the slowness of business resumption. Reviews of bank clearings and of business casualties for April indicated the continued low ebb of business activity.

Efforts to sustain prices centred on Southern Pacific and Amalgamated Copper, while Union Pacific and St. Paul were freely sold to take profits. The whole market weakened late in the day. Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $2,780.000. United States 2's declined 1-4, while the 3's, registered, advanced 1-4, and the coupons 1-8 per cent, on call. Total sales of stocks to-day, 620.400 shares. amongst the Afghans on the Indian Prisoner Sells Coat, Shoes and Shirt to Pay Fine, but Was Short 52 Cents.

Frank Donnelfa, who gave himself up to the county authorities, was sent on to the grand jury by Squire Lewis yesterday morning charged with wife esertion and non-support. It appears that Mrs. Donnella, who has not been living with her husband for some time, suddenly returned from Baltimore, where she has been living with her two children, and swore out warrant charging him with deser tion. On hearing of the warrant Donnella surrendered.

Bond in the some of $200 was given for his appearance before the grand jury, his father, John F. Donnella, formerly a lawyer of West Virginia, and J. G. Gifford, of this city, being sureties.

It was stated that Mrs. Donnelia had

It was stated that Mrs. Donnella had secured the services of local and Baltimore attorneys and would at once file a suit for divorce in addition to the legal proceedings already instigated. Donnella will file a cross-petition to this, as he says that he does not intend that his character shall be hurt.

that his character shall be hurt.

The trouble between the couple arose last summer, according to the father of the young man, when he, with his son, was returning home late one evening and saw Mrs. Donnella get out of a buggy in which there was a man who could not be recognized. When accussed by her husband of having been driving, Mrs. Donnella refused to make any explanation. Donnella then told her she could no longer stay at his home. She left the next day with her two children, and until Sunday had been living in Baltimore. Sunday had been living in Baltimore.

Sold Clothes to Pay Fine.

Harry Gardner, colored, fifty-two years oid, who was arristed by Detective Light for trying to beat his way to Columbia, Va., on a freight train, and who was committed to jail in default of a $6.29 fine, made a strenuous effort to raise the necessary amount by selling his hat, cost and shoes to fellow inmates. His efforts, however, were unavailing, for after having disposed of the articles at ridiculously Sale of Tickets Promises Large
